

A COMMUNITY-WIDE READING & BOOK DISCUSSION

Wednesday, October 1, 2008 • 7:00 PM • Rutherford Public Library

Ever wonder what it would be like if everyone in the community was reading the same book at the same time?

Attend the William Carlos Williams
Poetry Symposium in September and then read the Autobiography to learn more about Rutherford's famous doctor-poet.

Read The Autobiography of William Carlos Williams & join us for a discussion facilitated by a panel of William Carlos Williams experts and noted poets. Copies of the book will be available for loan and for sale at the Rutherford Public Library beginning on September 2nd. All are welcome to participate in this free program. Registration is not required and seating is available on a first-come, first serve basis. Hosted by the William Carlos Williams Poetry Cooperative & the Rutherford Public Library.
